

Free & Safe

THE UNDERGROUND RAILROAD IN VERMONT

Rokeby Museum presents a nationally significant Underground Railroad story tucked inside a quintessential Vermont experience.

Visit this National Historic Landmark and find inspiration in the award-winning exhibit, Free & Safe: The Underground Railroad in Vermont — there's nothing else like it in the northeast. A second exhibit — for 2017 only — presents historic photographs of American abolitionists. Duck into the historic farm buildings filled with artifacts as you stroll the pastoral grounds. Relax over lunch outside in the shade.

Rokeby Museum is located directly on US Route 7 just 15 minutes south of the Vermont Teddy Bear Factory and the Shelburne Museum, 5 minutes from Dakin Farm, and 20 minutes north of Middlebury.

Add Rokeby to your itinerary today!

HOURS OF OPERATION: OPEN DAILY 10–5 FROM MAY TO NOVEMBER

Group rate: $8 per person (15 minimum); tour leader and bus driver admitted free.
Groups are scheduled by reservation only.

ROKEBY MUSEUM

For information and reservations, contact: Jane Williamson, Director
4334 ROUTE 7, FERRISBURGH, VERMONT 05456 • 802.877.3406
WWW.ROKEBY.ORG • ROKEBY@COMCAST.NET •   ROKEBY MUSEUM

Explore Rokeby Museum...

The Museum's Education Center is home to the permanent exhibit Free & Safe: The Underground Railroad in Vermont and also provides restrooms, a gift shop, and a welcoming place to stop a moment.

Tours of the Robinson family home may be arranged by special request.

Picnic tables offer a place to enjoy lunch outside or to just sit and take in the view.

