THANK YOU

NEVER SWEETER THAN NOW, AFTER
THE LONG SILENCE OF WINTER,
DO THE BIRDS' SONGS SOUND, AND NEVER IN ALL THE ROUND OF
THE YEAR IS THERE A BETTER TIME TO SEE THEM THAN WHEN THE GRAY HAZE OF THE BRANCHES IS THE ONLY HIDING FOR THEIR GAY WEDDING GARMENTS.

ROKEBY MUSEUM INVITES YOU TO

THE BIRDS' SONGS SOUND MAY 4TH, 2019, 3-5 PM

A Spring Fundraiser for Contemporary Art at Rokey Museum

The Birds' Songs Sound celebrates Spring at Rokey Museum, with a festive tasting. Please join us as we sample Vermont artisan cheese, Stone Soup, and a selection of canapes and appetizers from Sugarsnap, all of which is paired with a variety of wines from Shelburne Vineyard. Guests will have the opportunity to tour the Robinson house and historic site. A program of art, music and readings will accompany the event.

All proceeds support the 2019 program for Contemporary Art at Rokey Museum, a collaboration with Kasini House. Space is limited, so we ask that you please RSVP by April 23rd.

Tickets: $100 per person

To RSVP and purchase tickets, you may use the enclosed reply card or visit: rokeby.org/contemporary to purchase tickets online.
